Weekly personal chef and meal preparation services

All menus are customized based on client preferences, dietary needs, and ingredient availability.

A booking is considered confirmed once a deposit has been received and the event date has been agreed upon. Deposits are typically required to secure the date and begin menu planning and sourcing ingredients. The remaining balance is due prior to or on the day of service unless otherwise agreed upon.

Pricing varies depending on:

Number of guests
Menu complexity
Ingredient costs and sourcing
Location and travel requirements
Special requests or premium ingredients

Final pricing will be confirmed before the event date. Clients may cancel or reschedule an event with advance notice.

Deposits may be non-refundable if cancellation occurs within a certain timeframe due to ingredient purchasing and scheduling commitments. Rescheduling may be accommodated depending on availability.

Clients are responsible for providing a safe and clean kitchen environment suitable for food preparation. The client must notify the chef of any food allergies or dietary restrictions prior to the event. Chris Prael Private Chef Services is not responsible for allergic reactions if allergies were not disclosed in advance.
